

Joan Devine serves as Director of Education for Pioneer Network and is the owner and operator of JPDevine Consulting whose mission is to “support care partners on their journey 2 home”. A registered nurse and former activity professional, Joan has over 30 years of experience in health care having served in leadership positions in long term and acute care settings since 1990. As an advocate for person centered care, and in her role with Pioneer Network and as a certified Eden Educator and Mentor, she actively participates in culture change activities, preparing and equipping administrator's and other senior care leaders to implement person directed practices and transform the culture of their homes. She serves on the board of MC5 (Missouri Coalition Celebrating Care, Continuum, Change), and is the author of the book, “Word of the Week: Creating a Culture Change Dictionary”, She holds a B.A. in Music Education/Music Therapy a B.S. in Nursing and a Masters in Management.